

2011 Hole-in-the-Wall Tour

The Hoofprints of the Past Museum is pleased to present a one of a kind historical tour of the famed Hole-In-The-Wall area on Saturday, June 25th.

Experience the history of the Hole in the Wall as we retrace the paths of famous outlaws, rustlers, cowboys, cattlemen, and Indians through the beautiful Kaycee and Barnum country. Each tour includes continental breakfast, lunch, and the tour guided by knowledgeable historians and locals. Relive the adventure and see the beauty of an amazing and wild area, where history still lives. Won't you walk with us in "the hoof prints of the past?"

Tour Details:

- Saturday, June 25th
- Cost: $85 per person
- Registration begins at 8:00 am with coffee, continental breakfast in Kaycee, WY
- Speakers begin at 8:30 am
- Along the route, speakers will tell the history surrounding each of the following sites:
 - Cabin site where Nate Champion and Nick Ray were killed during the Johnson County War
 - The famous Hole in the Wall and surrounding area, where notorious outlaws such as Butch Cassidy, Sundance Kid, and Kid Curry hid from the law
 - Stops at other historical sites along the journey, where events of the Johnson County war, outlaw history, and stories of past inhabitants of the area are recounted
 - Enjoy lunch at either the scenic Hole in the Wall cabin site or overlooking Outlaw Canyon

Past Speakers Include:

- Ruth Underwood, great-great niece of Nate Champion who has done a thorough study of the Champion family
- Bill Bentensen, who spent two weeks in Argentina and visited Butch Cassidy's ranch in Cholila. He is a descendent of Butch and well-known speaker and writer on the life of Butch Cassidy and the Wild Bunch
- Other local and knowledgeable historians whose families have lived in the area for generations

The deadline to register for the Hole in the Wall tour is June 15th.
Space is limited, so please make your reservation today using the form provided on the back.

To register, please contact:

- Hoofprints of the Past Museum, 307-738-2381 or curator@hoofprintsofthepast.org
- For more information regarding the Hole in the Wall Tour, contact Laurel Foster at 307-251-0981
- Or, complete and return the form below with payment.

Upon registering, you will be provided with a confirmation letter that includes further tour details, how to prepare, area lodging and dining information.

Registration Form:

Name: _____

Address: _____

Phone: _____

Tour:	Price:	# attending	Subtotal:
Hole in the Wall	$85
Total:

Please send check or money order with registration to:
Hoofprints of the Past Museum
Attn: Tour Registration
P.O. Box 114
Kaycee, WY 82639